The offertory collection today supports the work of the Irish missionaries abroad. Please be as generous as you can.

Becoming A Missionary Parish

Following a deanery meeting last week, attended by Bishop Deenihan for the first time, we were encouraged to look at how our parishes can become more missionary in our outlook.

Therefore we have decided to set up a 'Mullingar Parish Pastoral Team'. We hope this group of parish volunteers will help us to reach out in new ways, to involve more people in our parish life and activities, and to become a more welcoming and inclusive parish family. We need your help.

Please feel free to recommend people as members of this parish team. All recommendations will be considered and membership of the team will be finalised by 9 November.

Apostolic Works Society

Welcome to the members of the Society, hosting their display after 11am Mass until 3pm in the Parish Community Centre. The Society does great work in providing Mass kits, vestments and other items for priests and religious sisters all over the world.

St Kenny's NS raised €1750 for the missions - well done!

Christians in the Holy Land on Mission Sunday

This week, Fr Joe will join a pilgrimage retreat to the Holy Land. He wishes to assure you of his prayers in the Land of the Lord's birth, death and resurrection.

Congratulations to Fr Michael Kilmartin and all his parishioners in Longwood parish. Later today, the newly renovated Killyon Church will reopen with Mass celebrated by Bishop Tom Deenihan. The church will be dedicated to Our Lady and St Dominic.

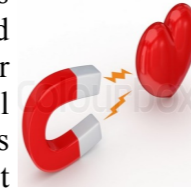

Welcome to Fr Gilbert who will be helping us in the parish for the next two weeks. We appreciate his help.

Recommended Spiritual Reading

"The Beatitudes are like a Christian's identity card. So, if anyone asks: 'What must one do to become a good Christian?', the answer is clear. We have to do, each in our own way, what Jesus told us on the Sermon on the Mount. In the Beatitudes, we find a portrait of the Master, which we are called to reflect in our daily lives. The word 'happy' or 'blessed' thus becomes a synonym for 'holy'. It expresses the fact that those faithful to God and his word, by their self-giving, gain true happiness." Aidan Donaldson, The Beatitudes of Pope Francis (Dublin: Veritas)

Quote from homily by Pope Francis last Sunday

"Dear brothers and sisters, our heart is like a magnet: it lets itself be attracted by love, but it can cling to one master only and it must choose: either it will love God or it will love the world's treasure; either it will live for love or it will live for itself."

List of the Dead

In November we will remember our departed loved ones. As we approach the month of the Holy Souls, our thoughts turn to "those gone before us marked with the sign of faith". Please prepare your Altar List of the Dead for remembrance at Mass on All Souls Day and for the First Fridays of the coming year. Completed lists may be returned to the box in the Cathedral, St Paul's Church or the Parish Office in the coming weeks.

Child Safeguarding Training: Fr Joseph, Maeve Corroon and Linda Duncan will attend the diocesan child safeguarding training on Tuesday evening. We are committed to ensuring best practice in our parish.

Healing Mass, Camillian's, Killucan, Thursday, 8pm.

Meetings for parents of children for First Communion St Kenny's School, Wednesday, 7.30pm.

Divine Mercy devotions, today, St Mary's 3pm.

Cookery Demo by Rachel Allen, Loreto College, Thursday, 8pm, in aid of Loreto College.

Meath Archaeological and Historical Society lecture - "Dissent and Reaction - Laurence Ginnell, World War I and the Irish Question", by Paul Hughes, QUB, Annebrook House Hotel, next Sunday at 3pm. All welcome.

Best wishes to Mullingar Shamrocks and St Loman's this weekend and congratulations to Shandonagh on their historic win last weekend.

Hymn for Mission Sunday

God's blessing sends us forth, strengthened for our task on earth:
refreshed in soul, renewed in mind.
May God with us remain, through us his Spirit reign that Christ be known to all mankind.

God's news in spoken word,
joyfully our hearts have heard;
O may the seed of God's love now grow.
May we in fruitful deeds gladly serve others' needs that faith in action we may show.

Month of the Rosary—Glorious Mysteries

Catholics are encouraged to pray the rosary. This week we ask you to join us in reciting the Glorious Mysteries and to pray them for all missionaries.
